"Hirsch isn't so much playing the blues as he is channeling them, in that regard, his guitar prowess is simply on a higher plane."
Michael Henningsen Local IQ 09

A critically acclaimed master of solo acoustic blues guitar, Stan Hirsch can drive a fiery bad-ass boogie sounding like a 3-piece band. Or soar with a gut-wrenching, sweet, string-bending blues. Together with his commanding vocals, and his intimate, personal delivery he delivers a dynamic performance. (www.stanhirsch.com).
